"SWEET SWAMPOODLE,"

How sweet it is at eventile, When closed is all our daily strife, To wander furth and closely view The ranged edge of city life.

To leave the city's grateful shade, Lung rows of mansions, grand and floe, The clean-awept streets, the gramy lawns, And grope among flwaterpoodle swine.

Kear where the tawny Tiber rolled, Amid the valley once so fair; Now allow pools pollute the spot, And gabbling geese are gathered there.

The lop-eared, lean, and lowing kine, Drag laxily their limbs along Where bare-legged toys and girls loud shout, And swell the sweet Swampoodler's song.

The slop-man and the spawined horse Jiold revel through the live-long day, While leaping lovingly about, The fragrant goat is seen at play, The weight and wanten Thomas-cat

Doth marder steep with cries most foul; While playful purps evade the tax And join the midnight Bacchnal's howl. Such scenes as these suggest a change, Mome sense of moral wrong to bring: Else rew, I fear, will ever hear 'The fluttering of an auget's wing, —thely Gleases.

A SOAPSUDS IDYL.

Her arms were white as unliky curds;
Her speech was tike the song of birds;
Her speech was tike the song of birds;
Her cycs were gray as mountain lakes
Where dream of shadow sites and breaks.
Her sown was print-her mame was failly—
Her summer years were barely twenty—
She dropped the soap to glance and daily—
And then the dimples came in plenty!
I praised her fingers, dripping awest.
Where warmth and whiteness seem to meet—
I made her blush and made her poot.
And watched her wring the lines out.
Oh, to meet her in the valley,
Snatch her hand, and call her Sally!
Oh, to find her on the hill,
Riss, and call her Sally still!
Oh, to chasp her quite slone, Oh, to clasp her quite alone, And call her Sally of one's own! Thyme and marjoram were sweet, 11
All the lavender was blowing—
Through the honeysuckled heat

-May Probyn. Predicting the Result in Virginia.

the Editor of Tan Republican:
Letters received from Virginia and else-

Bees were coming, bees were going where contain the inquiry: "What is your opinion if the result of the Virginia election?" Now that he skirmish line is being called in and the orderly rergants are busily engaged in issuing the extra rounds of cartridges, the battle lines formed, and the battle to begin at sources on Tuesday, I make the following prediction: Colonel Cameron's ma-jority in the State will be 17,000. Hon. John F. Lewis will lead him 500 to 700 votes, and Blair will ossibly fall behind Cameron 300 votes. The county of Rockingham will give Cameron 700 mafority; Shenandoah County, 325 majority; Page, 350 majority; Highland and Bath, from 150 to 250 each; Fluvanna, 300, and Goochland, 350 majority; cach; Fluvanna, 300, and Goechland, 350 majority; Albemsrie County, class. Angusta County will give Daniel 900 majority, with probably the election of Turk and Hamsberger, Readjusters. One year ago Hon. John Paul carried the above counties by 725 majority. Allowing for all mishaps that could possibly occur, Cameron, Lewis, and Blair will come out of the Seventh Congressional district with something over double Paul's majority of one year ago. This prediction is made after a careful exchange of opinions as given by prominent gentlemen of both parties, as well as the result of fremen of both parties, as well as the result of fre-quent conversations with numerous citizens from all of the counties named, who do not make pollties a profession, but who do know of the intentions of the voters in their respective neighborhoods. Mr. Paul's canvass of his district has been most thorough, as the result will show; and if every Re-adjuster in the State of prominence had labored as earnestly, Cameron's majority would have reached 50,000. To answer the further inquiry, I edict the next Legislature to be Coalition on join ballot by 35 majority—possibly 40.

Damaging a Reputation.

The reputation, originally good, of many proprietary articles, is in some instances damaged by that most egregious of all business follies, fiamboyant advertising. The public soon becomes disgusted with an article concerning which statements are made with the evident design of hoodwinking it, and is nauscated rather than imposes upon by reakless claims to impossible merits. It as ever been the aim of the propoletare of Hoshas ever been the aim of the propelators of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to make the published allegations relating to it conform site reason and proven facts. That they have a second in this laudable design is shown by the fact that their remedy is not only popular, as widely respected.
Experience without the aid of hombast has demonatrated that it has tonig of itso first order, a safe and thorough remedy for and preventive of malarial diseasons, a salutary anti-spacehoodic and pemedy for dability, and a confett order of all allegations of the stomach, liver and bowels. MWF FINANCIAL NEWS.

The following observations on the transactions in the financial market Saturday, logither with opening, highest, inwest, and closing quotations, are furnished by the banking-house of H. D. Cooke, Jr., & Co., 129 F street, Washington, D. Cl.

NEW YORK, NOV. S. 253 p. m.—The market opened strong, and, excepting reactions at about noon and in the closing half hour, continued strong, showing an advance for the day of from 5; to 3 per cent. The undertone of the market was strong throughout the day, and during the decline in the moon hours there was an evident attempt to raid the market, which stood the test well, rallying almost immediately. The trunkline shares and the Grangers were steady and not especially active, the principal activity being in the low-priced slocks and in the Scatinesstern. The loss in the bank reserve is largely due to the increase in deposits, and had no material effect on the market, as it is conceded that an easy money market is assured for some time to come, and that the palicy of the administration is demonstrated in yesterday's amounceistration is demonstrated in yesterday's announce ment of proposed purchases of 2's. The liquidation of the wheat speculation continues, the Chicago mar of the wheat speculation continues, the Chicago mar ket showing a further decline to-day of 2 cents i bushel. Money ruled at 5@0 per cent. during the day closing at 3664 per cent.
